

WORLD WEEK

OCTOBER 7-11, 2024

AI Literacy Workshops Location: Ingram Library Nook

Monday, October 7 11am-noon	Basics of AI Introduction to what AI is, common forms like text generators, and how it works. Instructor: Bryson Frederick (Student in Computer Science)
Tuesday, October 8 1-2pm	Using AI: Effective and Ethical Practices Introduction to common AI tools for university courses and how these can be used effectively and ethically. Includes recommendations on AI-use policy in courses. Instructor: Dr. Sunil Hazari (Richards College of Business)
Wednesday, October 9 3-4pm	Art and AI Panel discussion of AI in the art world, from the ethics of training AI with existing art to the use of AI as a tool in the creation of art. Panelists: Professor John Morris (Art), Professor Dominic Nguyen (Art), Professor Mark Schoon (Art)
Thursday, October 10 2-3pm	Using AI in Your Career Search Partner event with Career Services. Panel discussion. Panelists: Hope Ridley, Career Coach; Anika McCoy, Career Coach; Lauren Davis, Employer Relations Coordinator; Suzy McCorkle, Associate Director of Employer Relations