What is this course about?

A study of organizational, interpersonal/small-group, and oral communication in the corporate structure and the effect of the global community upon corporate communication. Through student presentations, threaded discussion and analysis of communication, major emphasis is on organizational communication and developing skills in the following:

- Technology
- Presentations
- Nonverbal communication/Listening
- Written communication
- Management of meetings and other group processes
- Cross-cultural/Global communication
- Business ethics
- Conflict resolution
- Building leadership skills

What you'll learn at the conclusion of this course...*Course Objectives Related to Learning Goals/Learning Outcomes (LG-MBA)

Developing communication skills enables you to communicate professionally and successfully in business and educational environments. The focus is based on three objectives:

1. Developing foundation skills in reading, listening, writing, and speaking; working with others; working with technology; and working with a global perspective. Developing foundational skills should enable you to do the following:
  - a. Analyze the human communication process and determine its importance in organizations (MBA 1)
  - b. Analyze the importance of interpersonal, cross-cultural, and ethical communication in organizations (MBA 1, 2)
  - c. Analyze the importance of communicating technologically in organizations (MBA 4)
  - d. Identify the importance of basic skills and visual support in the business environment (MBA 5)
2. Developing learning skills for today's workplace, which is increasingly becoming more team-oriented, especially for the following:
  - a. Written and oral communication (MBA 1)
  - b. Nonverbal aspects of written and oral communication (MBA 1)
  - c. Technology and advanced visual support (MBA 4)
  - d. Interpersonal (dyadic) situations (i.e. interviews) (MBA 2)
  - e. Problem-solving and small-group processes (MBA 5)
3. Developing special application skills to measure communication performance and results related to tasks performed in the "real world" such as:
  - a. Group process (MBA 2)
  - b. Presentations, reports, and discussions (MBA 1,2,4,5)
  - c. Conflict management and business ethics (MBA 1,2,3,5)
  - d. Research, case analyses, and problem solving (MBA 1, 5)

What you'll need to do to succeed...

- Attend class. This course will be delivered 100% online. However, some of the classes will meet synchronously via Blackboard Collaborative and/or Google Hangouts. When there is a synchronous class, all students are expected to attend via webcam and on their computers (not mobile device).
- Prepare and participate. Come prepared to each online class (both synchronous and asynchronous) to discuss readings, demonstrate knowledge, analyze cases, challenge assumptions, and question solutions. Be prepared to enrich class discussion by sharing relevant information from your own personal and professional communication experiences. You are responsible for reading and studying the texts, research, and class notes and for participating fully in ALL activities. Do NOT "count on" your group to "cover" or do your work! Groups should immediately report to the instructor a member who is NOT doing his/her portion of the work. That way, the instructor may intervene before the group's grade is adversely affected.

- Professionalism. You are expected to be as professional as possible in this course. Due to the online nature, you are expected to communicate in writing or when on video professionally using proper English and punctuation. You are expected to arrive on time and avoid any early exits during online classes (either meeting as a group or as a team). If you need to arrive late or leave early, please contact me via email or telephone to let me know ahead of time. Avoid activities unrelated to the class (checking email, working on your computer, sending text messages, etc.) while you are online (either as a group or as a team).
- Hand in professional documents. Type all documents on 8.5 x 11" letter-quality paper using Calibri, Times New Roman or Arial fonts with margins of 1" in black ink (unless specified differently—based on assignments). Use an appropriate document format and unjustified text. Use APA style format as directed. Assignments must be saved with .doc or .docx extension. Student work should display the correct spelling, punctuation, and grammar rules for all assignments.
- Deliver professional presentations. You will be delivering presentations online via video. When presenting, email your presentation (cover page along with 6 slides per handout) to the professor by the deadline required on CourseDen. Be sure to dress professionally for all presentations—see photo to the right for minimum dress requirements.
- Meet every deadline. Turn in all writing assignments on the dates specified on CourseDen (also located on the syllabus). You will earn a "0" for missing the deadline of an assignment/activity or failing to deliver your presentation as scheduled. If you miss a deadline due to a verifiable emergency, contact me at swebb@westga.edu or (678) 839-4841 immediately, and I will consider a make-up or alternate assignment based on the circumstances (a late penalty may apply).
- Follow these policies. As a member of this class, you agree to abide by the policies stated in this syllabus. Asking me to make an exception to these policies breaches our social contract as a group, so please resist the temptation to request special consideration.

What you can expect in each class...

Students will be expected to participate daily through class discussions, reading from the text, developing and delivering a team project, engaging in CourseDen online assignments, presenting orally, analyzing research, and preparing business communication documents.

Important UWG Policies...

Common Language for Course Syllabi. Please carefully review the information at the following link. The document at this link contains important information pertaining to your rights and responsibilities in this class. <http://tinyurl.com/UWGSyllabusPolicies>

Credit Hour Policy (3 credit hours): Due to the condensed nature of this course, for eight weeks (+ final exam week), students in this class will generally spend 270 minutes with direct faculty instruction (either face-to-face or online) and work about 360 minutes outside of the classroom each week. This out-of-class work may include, but is not limited to, readings, assignments, projects, group work, research, and test preparation.

Course Withdrawal. Refer to the UWG Undergraduate Catalog for specific instructions on the "Withdrawal Policy." Students who do not "officially" withdraw from the course will receive a "failing" grade.

Academic Honor. UWG students are expected to achieve/maintain the highest standards of academic honesty and excellence. Therefore, the UWG student pledges not to lie, cheat, plagiarize, or steal in the pursuit of study and is encouraged to report students who do (refer to Student Handbook, Appendix E, Academic Dishonesty). Students who breach the Academic Dishonesty guidelines will receive a “failing” grade in the course.

When there is an online class, what can be expected?

Each week, you must have access to CourseDen. You will need to go in and complete all the activities for the day. You should expect to spend the SAME amount of time online as you would in a class conducted on the campus (4 hrs. 30 mins.). Please be sure you plan and include at least four hours and thirty minutes for your online class. The online class will consist of PowerPoint presentations, video lectures, activities, threaded discussion blogs and forums, etc. for you to do asynchronously (not at a specific time or synchronous with your classmates). However, a few of the class meetings will be synchronous where each student will need a webcam and access to their computers (not mobile devices). NOTE: If you have questions or want to email the professor, please do NOT use CourseDen mail function, but email directly at swebb@westga.edu.

What assignments will need to be completed?

The following assignments will measure your understanding of and ability to apply course concepts to accomplish the learning objectives established for this course. Assignments that are to be completed individually are to be completed 100 percent on your own and without assistance from others. Refer to the PROJECTS folder on CourseDen for each assignment’s expectations and requirements.
