OFFICE HOURS:

Virtual office hours available to meet the demands of online students. Appointment requests should be made in advance to avoid potential conflicts by emailing kholder@westga.edu. Allow up to 24-48 hours to respond to requests.

PREREQUISITES: Overall 2.0 GPA

Grading is calculated based on your performance on eight online quizzes, one group assignment, and two tests delivered in the form of an online midterm and an in-class cumulative final exam.

Tests (2) – midterm (25%), final (25%)	50%	50 points
Quizzes (8)	40%	40 points
Group Assignment (1)	10%	10 points
TOTAL:	100%	100 points

The midterm and cumulative final are based on the assigned readings, lecture notes, quizzes, and all class assignments. There are NO make-up tests, except for university approved excuses, such as severe/contagious illnesses, death in the family, hospitalization, jury duty, or university sanctioned events where you are a required participant. You must provide appropriate documentation and make alternative arrangements well in advance of the required test date or any other missed deadline.

All quizzes and their associated deadlines are announced in advance on the syllabus. All quizzes are completed using CourseDen and end at 11:59 PM EST for the date listed. Missed quizzes CANNOT be made up without prior permission and appropriate documentation. The group assignment is completed within a group of your own choosing with grading based on the finished product as well as input from completed peer-evaluations. All deadlines are stated as Eastern Standard Time (EST).

Any extra credit opportunities will be announced on CourseDen along with their corresponding deadlines and will be offered to the class as a whole. The pursuit of extra credit is optional and is offered at the discretion of the instructor. My overall goal is to help each of you find a path to success, recognizing that each person learns in their own unique way and at their own pace. A variety of ways for you to earn points towards your final grade are offered within this course and most students are very successful. However, each semester there are a handful of students who wish they had taken advantage of earlier opportunities to earn points...don't let this happen to you!

IMPORTANT GRADING INFORMATION

The approximate pace of the course is 1-2 chapters each week. A checklist/calendar will be posted in CourseDen with all relevant deadlines once the class roster is finalized (after Roster Verification). Test dates will remain fixed, however chapters covered for each test are tentative and deviations may be necessary depending upon the progress of the class. Any and all changes to deadlines or content will be posted on CourseDen. If you need accommodations due to university approved travel, please submit your letter or other documentation via email during the first few weeks of this course.

If you have conflicts with the date/times of the final exam (12/2 at 830am in Miller Hall 1201), please see the section titled: "Important Testing Information". Proctoring options are available if scheduled in advance during the final exam window from 11/30 – 12/1/2016 at any approved UWG Online proctoring location.

You must meet the submission deadline for the midterm which will be announced in advance on CourseDen and you must be in the classroom prior to the start of your final exam - late entry will not be allowed. Students who arrive late will forfeit their right to earn points towards the scheduled midterm or final exam. Please allocate plenty of time for handling technology issues, parking problems or unexpected traffic delays.

Any student who does not meet the midterm submission deadline will have their midterm weight automatically added to their cumulative final. The final for these students will count as 50% of their grade which is the weight of the missed midterm and final combined. All other students in the class will have their grade calculated BOTH ways (25% midterm & 25% final vs. 50% final) to ensure that any potential advantage obtained by missing the midterm is made available to all students. The highest overall grade calculated of the two possibilities will be recorded as the final overall class grade.

NOTE: It is the student's responsibility to withdraw from the class by contacting the registrar's office directly. On 8/22/2016 I will check to see that you have attended class (i.e. logged in on CourseDen, accessed class materials, and completed all assigned work) prior to this date. If this condition is not satisfied, I will report you as "non-attending" to the UWG Office of the Registrar in order to protect your GPA and conform to institutional requirements! The last day to withdraw with a grade of "W" is September 30th. See the full academic calendar here: <https://www.westga.edu/student-services/registrar/fall-2016-registrar-calendar.php>

Please be aware that UWG instituted a limited withdrawal policy effective Fall Semester 2013, information is available here: <https://www.westga.edu/student-services/registrar/drop-add-and-withdrawal.php>

ATTENDANCE: This is an ONLINE class where work is primarily completed independently with scheduled deadlines for quizzes, tests, and assignments. Students who miss these deadlines will forfeit those points. All deadlines are scheduled in advance. It is the responsibility of the student to make adjustments to their own schedules to fit the requirements of the course.

This is not an independent study or self-paced course, but instead is delivered as asynchronous instruction which means that you can access the material you need without time or place constraints (attending a regular class in person). This allows you the flexibility you need, but there are still firm deadlines and a set "pace" to the course and there are group assignments which require you to interact and collaborate with your classmates. If this does not suit your learning style, check here: <http://www.westga.edu/econ/1735.php> for alternative classes.

CANCELLATION: In the event that class is cancelled, any relevant assignments or course announcements will be posted on CourseDen. Please review UWG's Emergency Closing Policy for inclement weather located here: <https://www.westga.edu/police/emergency-closing-policy.php>. If severe weather occurs, particularly those affecting your ability to complete assignments (ex: power outages), I will adjust deadlines accordingly. I will also be using Remind 101 this semester, register here (<https://www.remind.com/join/uwgmicro>) or see the last page for more information.

CELLPHONES/COMPUTERS: On test day, hats/caps, phones, music devices, calculators and any other electronic device or auxiliary devices (ex: headphones, Bluetooth headsets, calculator/smart watches, cameras, etc.) are not allowed at your desk or within your clothing. I prefer you leave these at home or in your backpack which must be left at the front of the classroom. Failure to follow this test day procedure will result in action in accordance with the academic dishonesty policy stated below.

I encourage the use of technology in our virtual classroom as a tool to enhance learning. Tweeting using the class hashtag, interacting using the Facebook page or utilizing the private class Facebook group are all great ways to interact with your classmates. I highly recommend using technology as a way to build your own personal learning network and connect with other students to make the coursework more manageable.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY: Cheating on any test will result in a zero on the test, an F in the course and will be reported to Student Services for appropriate disciplinary action by the University. Cheating on any assignment, exercise or quiz will result in a zero on the assignment or exercise, the lowering of the student's final grade in the course by one letter grade, and will be reported to Student Services for appropriate disciplinary action by the University. Examples of cheating include turning in work that is not your own or having another student complete an online quiz for you.

Students not familiar with what constitutes academic dishonesty should refer to the Student Handbook and the Undergraduate Catalog's Student Code of Conduct: http://www.westga.edu/assetsSA/handbook/2015-2016_Student-Code-of-Conduct_Rev062415.pdf

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

The overall objective of this course is for you to learn basic economic concepts and more about the economic system in which we live. To this end, upon completion of the course, a student will be able to:

- 1) Describe basic economic concepts such as scarcity and opportunity costs (LG4, LG8)
- 2) Summarize in writing the key microeconomic concepts contained in an article from a business periodical, e.g., the Wall Street Journal (LG1)
- 3) Demonstrate a basic knowledge of microeconomics including concepts such as utility maximization, elasticity costs, market structure and labor markets (LG4, LG8)
- 4) Demonstrate a basic knowledge of international economics including concepts such as comparative advantage, specialization and gains to trade (LG4, LG5, LG8, LG9)
- 5) Recognize ethical and economic dimensions of government involvement in markets including regulation and the provision of public goods (LG5, LG8), and
- 6) Analyze current events using economic models such as supply and demand (LG4, LG8)

NOTE: A complete list of expected learning goals (LG) for the Economics Department can be found at the department web site (<http://www.westga.edu/econ/1718.php>).

CREDIT HOUR POLICY (3 CREDIT HOURS): For approximately 3-1/2 weeks, students in this class will generally spend 150 minutes with direct faculty instruction (either face-to-face or online) and work up to 360 minutes outside of the classroom each day. This out-of-class work may include, but is not limited to, readings, assignments, projects, group work, research, and test preparation.

COMMON LANGUAGE FOR COURSE SYLLABI: Students, please carefully review the following information which contains important material pertaining to your rights and responsibilities in this class. These statements are updated as federal, state, university, and accreditation standards change; you should review the information each semester. http://www.westga.edu/assetsDept/vpaa/Common_Language_for_Course_Syllabi.pdf

ACCESS TO TECHNOLOGY: This course is delivered 95% online. You must have reliable access to technology to be successful in this course. You can complete your course using the student computer labs on campus or on your own equipment. Keep in mind that technology problems often seem to occur at the worst possible times. I encourage every student to have a back-up plan and complete their work well in advance of deadlines in case their technology fails. Unreliable internet access or inability to login to CourseDen will result in missed deadlines and forfeited points.

This course does not require the purchase or use of a clicker/iclicker. From time to time we may answer questions interactively using cellphones or computers and a free program called Poll Everywhere.

COURSEDEN (D2L) HELPFUL INFORMATION: We will use CourseDen extensively for this course. Please make sure you are comfortable with UWG's course management system and seek help before assignment or quiz deadlines.

PARKING SERVICES: All University of West Georgia students taking online classes that visit the Carrollton campus must have their vehicle registered and display a current University of West Georgia. <https://www.westga.edu/campus-life/parking/index.php>

UWG STUDENT IDENTIFICATION (UWG ID): Your UWG Student Identification card serves as your official identification card for university purposes. You must show your current UWG ID card in order to take your final exam – NO other form of identification will be accepted. UWG Student ID cards are made in the University Community Center (UCC), Top Floor from 8 am –7 pm Monday through Thursday, and from 8 am-4:30 pm Friday. UWG students registered exclusively in online courses are eligible to obtain their student ID Wolves Card via mail using the forms and procedures found here: <https://uwgonline.westga.edu/uwg-id-cards.php>

IMPORTANT TESTING INFORMATION: This course requires an online midterm and a face-to-face final exam. The final exam will take place on 12/2 at 8:30 am EST in Miller Hall Room 1201. Your professor will be proctoring this exam and there is no additional proctoring exam fee. During the first 2 weeks of class, a sign-up sheet will be available for you to determine other proctoring options for those students who are unable to take the exam on this date or at this location. I will work with you individually on making proctoring arrangements when notified via the sign-up sheet located on CourseDen. It is the student's responsibility to submit a proctoring request to the professor at the start of the semester and pay any testing fees assessed by the proctoring locations. All students must take the final exam in person at the date and time listed on the syllabus unless other arrangements are made in advance. The proctoring final exam window is 11/30-12/1 for use at approved UWG Online proctoring locations.

GROUP ASSIGNMENTS: Collaboration with others is a key to success, particularly in the business world. Even if you someday want to be the CEO of your own company, you eventually will need to learn to manage your ability to interact with others. In that spirit, this course requires a single collaborative assignment, designed to help you learn an essential real world business skill. With today's technology, it is easier than ever to coordinate work across time and space using a variety of methods and time is provided within the course to accommodate this requirement - do NOT let this be a stumbling block to a successful semester! The assignment choices are (choose one):

Assignment Choice 1 – Rockonomix: Economics or Personal Finance Music Video Parody (preferred)
Assignment Choice 2 – PopEcon: In-depth Economics or Personal Finance Media Analysis Pop-up Style Video

These assignments cannot be completed independently, unless extreme circumstances require accommodation. For example, military service in a foreign country which would make virtual coordination difficult due to extreme time differences or long-term hospitalization are good examples of when a request should be made. In most cases, raising children, working while attending class or other class constraints are not suitable for an independent work request since these circumstances are common amongst almost all online learners.

I AM LOOKING FORWARD TO A GREAT SEMESTER WITH EACH OF YOU! I have found that most things in life are easier when we are able to work with others who share the same goals. My goal (and hopefully yours) is to make this learning experience a success. With this in mind, I encourage each of you to reach out to your fellow classmates (and me) by posting questions on the class Facebook page, tweeting about class, watching helpful tutorial videos or old video projects on YouTube, viewing econ projects on Pinterest, or increasing your future business network on LinkedIn. Many of the anticipated extra credit opportunities will utilize social media, so I have listed my information below. My belief is that together we can make this a class one that you look forward to attending!
