Academic dishonesty includes cheating, collaboration, plagiarizing, etc. Any instances of academic dishonesty will be dealt with in accordance with University policies, which may include failing the assignment, a failing grade in the course, and/or referral to the Vice President for Student Affairs.

Attendance

Good attendance practices could positively affect your overall grade in this course. In addition, you may have the opportunity to earn extra points towards an exam based on a class participation activity. These activities are NOT announced prior to class. You MUST be in attendance on that class day to participate.

You must have a legitimate reason for missing an exam (death in the family, serious illness, etc.). A doctor's excuse is necessary if an exam must be made up due to a serious illness. If you are going to miss an exam, you must contact the Instructor prior to the test or you will receive a zero for the exam. Make-ups will ONLY be provided if the reason for missing the test is approved by the Instructor. All approved make up exams will be given on the day of finals. You will always have the option to take the final to make up for a missed exam.

Class Participation

You will be expected to participate in all class participation activities. Activities could be group assignments, case studies, etc. The activities are used to help in your understanding of various topics covered during class lectures. You will also have the opportunity to earn extra points towards exams on some of the activities. In addition, questions from class participation activities could be on any of the exams.

Credit Hour Policy (3 credit hours)

For approximately fifteen weeks, students in this class will generally spend 150 minutes with direct faculty instruction (either face-to-face or online) and work about 360 minutes outside of the classroom each week. This out-of-class work may include, but is not limited to, readings, assignments, projects, group work, research, and test preparation.

Extra Credit and Extra Points

No one student will be given extra credit opportunities or extra points at the beginning, middle, or end of the course. The Instructor reserves the right to give the entire class an extra credit opportunity at her discretion. There are NO exceptions.

On exam days, only students who have a documented disability that includes the need for frequent restroom visits will be permitted to leave the classroom during an exam. All other students are asked to take all restroom breaks before the exam, or be prepared to turn in the exam before you leave the classroom.
