Course description

This is an advanced course in international/global business. It is designed to explain students the growing opportunities and potential risks in doing business across national boundaries. The nature and economic role of the international/global business, including the impact of legal, political, social, and cultural variables are examined for their influence upon business performance and managerial activity.

The course covers a broad range of global business issues from an interdisciplinary viewpoint emphasizing the key concerns of the global company. The course teaches today's competitive global environment, master knowledge and skills to analyze cross cultural variables and their impact on international business. This course provides students a truly global approach in identifying, analyzing, and solving problems.

Structure of the course

Lecture notes, articles, videos, quizzes, and case presentations are distributed via Learning Modules, which run for one to three weeks from Wednesday–Tuesday. (See: Schedule and orientation)

Assessments and assignments

We have both individual and group assignments. The guidelines for all assignments can be found in the Orientation Module.

Reading assignments:

This consists of completing all the assigned readings. These are book chapter/s, articles, lecture notes, and videos. (Individual)

Chapter quizzes and final exam (Individual)

There are 1-3 chapters in each learning module. Quizzes focus on key concepts of each chapter. Quizzes are timed (30 minutes/quiz). At the end of the semester, a comprehensive final quiz will be given. You have 30 min to complete and it contains the combination of multiple choice and/or short answer questions. (Individual)

Module discussions (Individual)

This assignment reflects your class participation. There will be 7 (seven) current issues discussions during this course, one in each module. You are required to participate in 5 (five) of them by answering question and replying others' comments. If you only post your answer, you cannot receive a grade higher than 75/100. You are responsible of keeping up your participation in the discussions. You can view your progress in the D2L. Each discussion is graded separately. You will receive 0/100 from each discussion you do not contribute.

Case presentation (Group)

Each team prepares a recorded case presentation. Cases will be assigned during the first week of classes.

Your instructor will notify you about the possible changes to the schedule.

Commenting case presentations:

You will listen to all case presentations and give feedback for the presenting group. The form will be provided and you will submit your feedback using a survey in D2L. (Individual)

Grading

Your grade will be evaluated as below. All assignments are graded with a 0-100 point scale. Assignment guidelines, and how assignments are evaluated, are available in the Orientation module.

Chapter quizzes	10%
Final quiz	10%
Module discussion (individual, 5 discussions)	5%
Case presentation (group)	35%
Evaluating case presentations (individual)	10%
Total	100%

A= 89.5% or more

B= 79.9% to 89.4%

C= 69.9% to 79.8%

D= 59.9% to 69.8%

F= less than 59.9%

Common Guidelines and Practicalities

1. If you have questions or concerns, please contact professor as soon as possible.
2. Assignments submitted late will not be graded without proper documentation (for instance doctor's note that you were hospitalized, deployments). You have to email (mrollins@westga.edu) or fax (678-839-5041), Marketing and Real Estate Department, UWG) your documentation.
3. You can expect the reply to your email within 6-12 hours (EDT). In weekends response time maybe longer.
4. Discussions and case presentations are graded within 10 days of the original due date, if not stated otherwise. If you submit your assignment early, it will not be graded early.

Your instructor will notify you about the possible changes to the schedule.

5. If you have technical problems with D2L, contact helpdesk as soon as possible. As you may already know, D2L will be down at several times during the semester for maintenance. Please note the downtimes on the homepage and plan accordingly. Technical difficulties will occur.
6. Extra credit assignments are not given in this course.
7. Write your discussion postings in Word or Notes and then copy and paste them to discussion board. In addition, make sure that your posting is saved and it is visible to others before you logged out from the D2L.

Your instructor will notify you about the possible changes to the schedule.

Class Schedule (cases and team will be added at the end of the first week of classes)

Choose 5 out of 7 discussions to participate in during the semester. You are encouraged to participate in all of them.
