COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1) Repertoire

To be determined by the student and the professor to fit the individual student's growth and interests. During the academic year one piece from each of the four standard periods should be learned. Assigned repertoire and technique level is adjusted to fit the varying needs of students, and to create progressive advancement in level. Additional repertoire information for Level Change and Recitals is given below and in a separate document.

2) Practice Requirements

Students registered for two credits must practice two hours/day for 6 days of the week (12 hrs/wk). Students registered for one credit must practice one hour per day for 6 days of the week (6 hrs/wk). (3 credits is 18 hrs/week). Students performing a Level Change or Recital will need to add to these times. The most important practice day is the SAME day as your lesson so that you can remember what occurred. Please feel free to stop by and see me if you have any questions in between your lessons. It is very important to follow the practice plan established at the lesson and recorded in your lesson notebook. Remember, practice does NOT make perfect, but rather "PERFECT practice makes perfect (Robert Pace)". This is a recommended practice plan:

1. OBSERVE what was correct and incorrect.
2. DIAGNOSE why things were incorrect.
3. PRESCRIBE how to fix the problem.
4. EXECUTE the prescription.
5. EVALUATE its effectiveness.

3) Attendance Policy

Students must be punctual and attend all lessons. Students who miss lessons for any reason, including the instructor's absence, are not automatically entitled to make-up lessons. Please do NOT knock at your lesson time, I will simply open the door.

UWG provides excellent resources to students, and if you need to be absent, and wish to inform me of your circumstances, you may invite a UWG Professional to assist you:

- a) Physical Health: Health Services Patient Advocate(Jill Hendricks, Corey Hindman)
- b) Emotional Health: UWG Cares: www.westga.edu/UWGCares
- c) Academic:(time management, learning disabilities): EXCEL Center: www.westga.edu/excel
- d) Miscellaneous: Dean of Students Office: www.westga.edu/vpsa
- e) UWG music instructor concerning date and time of departure for an ensemble tour or conference.

Please note: communication regarding absences is via email only. Dr. Gingerich is well qualified to assist with musical and pianistic problems. But for reasons of confidentiality and in order to obtain the best professional advice, assistance for situations which are non-musical or non- pianistic must be provided by one of the UWG professional listed above.

4) Concert Attendance

Studio members are expected to support other pianists by attending performances by other piano students and Dr. Gingerich's invited guest pianists.

5) Level Change and Recital Hearing Policies

Prior to your Recital or Level Change you must perform it in its entirety in an on or off campus setting which you arrange (retirement home, friends in Cashen, church, etc). One week prior to your scheduled date you must perform your entire program for me and you must receive a passing grade in order to be ELIGIBLE to perform your Level Change or Recital Hearing.

6) Committee Establishment Policy

45 days prior to your Level Change or Recital Hearing you must secure the date, time, location, and committee members. This is ENTIRELY your responsibility. In addition to myself you will need two committee members (choice someone supportive). Both your repertoire and dates must be approved by me.

7) Recital Preparation: A. Performance Majors

UWG Departmental Policy

Half Recital: 20-30 minutes of repertoire; must pass Hearing 2 weeks prior to recital date

Full Recital: 40-60 minutes of repertoire; must pass Hearing 2 weeks prior to recital date

Recital Preparation: Performance Majors

a) Preparing for a public recital is an exciting and demanding undertaking requiring much preparation in advance so that the performer can fully explore the interpretive depths of the music, and competently communicate the musical meaning to the audience. Advance preparation is needed in order for memorization to become internalized, for technical habits to develop naturally, and to allow time for performing experiences in other venues. These methods of recital preparation are utilized by the best concert pianists around the world.

b) In order to provide the preparation time needed for Half and Full Recitals, UWG performance majors are required to prepare the following minimum number of minutes of NEW repertoire [not performed in public the previous semester (s)] during the indicated semester of Principal Applied study. This repertoire may include repeated sections as indicated in the score, or ensemble music as approved by the recital Hearing committee. The number of minutes is calculated based upon anticipated final performance tempi. These requirements are in addition to those listed elsewhere in this syllabus.

	# Minutes of New Repertoire
Semester 1	Introduction. No specific number of minutes
Semester 2	5 minutes
Semester 3	10 minutes
Semester 4	5 minutes. Perform 20 minutes of repertoire for Level Change
Semester 5	15 minutes
Semester 6	5 minutes. Perform 20 minute Half Recital
Semester 7	15 minutes
Semester 8	5 minutes. Perform 40 minute Full Recital

c) Learning the number of minutes of new repertoire will be part of the lesson grade. This new repertoire will be incorporated into the lesson grade according to an individualized plan, mutually created by the student and Dr. Gingerich. The following is a typical plan:

August-mid October: All repertoire is learned and memorized incrementally with specific measure numbers chosen for each lesson.

Mid October-December: Two pieces (or 3-4 as indicated in the Jury category below) are chosen to polish and perform at the jury.

Repertoire which is not learned or memorized according to the individualized lesson plan, will earn a lower lesson grade for the particular lesson assigned. These policies exist to emphasize to students the utmost importance of the advance preparation needed for success for recitals; to provide a structured guideline and realistic timeline by which students can be successful; and most importantly, to create an environment in which students can gain pleasure and satisfaction in the preparation and performance of their recitals.

d) These policies became effective for all students January 1, 2015. Current students may need to increase these minimum length indications in order to prepare for their recitals.

e) In order to learn the minimum number of minutes of repertoire, students will need to:

- i) practice using methods given at their lesson
- ii) practice the assigned number of hours listed in the syllabus
- iii) practice independently while continually evaluating themselves

7) B. Recital Preparation: Composition and Music Education Majors

OPTIONAL-students may choose to perform a recital after passing the Level Change in Semester 4, and with Dr. Gingerich's approval. Students who do not learn the required number of minutes, will not be eligible to perform a recital.

a) Same as category a) above for Performance majors.

b)	# Minutes New Repertoire
Semester 1	No specific number of minutes
Semester 2	No specific number of minutes
Semester 3	No specific number of minutes
Semester 4	Perform Level Change
Semester 5	10 minutes
Semester 6	Composition: additional new repertoire as needed and perform 20 minute Half Recital
	Music Education: 5 minutes
Semester 7	Music Education: additional new repertoire as needed and perform Half Recital

c) Same as category c) above for Performance majors.

8) Academic Policies

Official communication will be via "my.westga.edu" accounts only.

Extra credit is permitted as indicated, but work created in other courses may not be utilized. Extra credit is granted after the completion of the requirements of this syllabus and may not be utilized as a substitute for regular work.

EVALUATION

Lessons

Each lesson will receive a grade out of 7% and the best 10 will be kept. It is expected that ALL assigned materials will have been practiced and that you are able to play them at a STEADY tempo. It is expected that you will have followed the assigned practice plan and have made progress towards those goals whether they be technical or interpretive.

Music 1000 Performance

This is held on specific Mondays at 3:30 in Cashen Recital Hall. You must perform one time each semester and will receive a grade simply for doing this. You may view this as a "run through" for your jury. At the lesson prior to this performance, your piece must be “performance ready” in order to be allowed to perform. Students enrolled in their first semester of applied study may submit an additional Practice Journal instead.

Jury

This final exam is performed in front of the piano faculty. You will play your assigned technique and at least two memorized, contrasting repertoire pieces. For all majors, the semester prior to the Level Change, Half or Full recital, or Hearing-in-Lieu of Recital, approximately 3-4 pieces will be performed, based upon Dr. Gingerich’s determination of the necessary preparation needed for these important performances.

Sight Reading

Each week you will practice assigned pages in the Four Star Sight Reading book, using the methodology described at your lesson. 5 times during the semester, USING YOUR BOOK, you will be tested at your lesson.

You may choose from the following two options:

- a) Option #1 – sight reading of 12 exercises (2 per day) from 4 Star Sight Reading book,
- b) Option #2 – alternate 4 Star Sight Reading book with hymns or Bach chorales (HS as needed), typically one hymn per day (6 per week)

Studio Class

Attendance is required for ALL students. For students not enrolled in MUSC 1000, more than one Unexcused Absence will result in the grade of F for the course.

GMTA Attendance

Attendance at a single GMTA concert or session. If not attending the same time as Dr. G, bring a handout or recital program back to UWG, or make yourself known to Dr. McCord or Miss Adams, if they are there. $10.00 cost for non GMTA members (membership is $29.00 and includes a monthly journal).

Grading

Lessons (10 at 7% each)	70%
Music 1000 Performance	3%
Jury*	10%
Sight Reading Tests (5, 2% each)	10%
GMTA Attendance	3%
Studio Class Attendance (1% each)	4%
