COURSE DESCRIPTION: An examination of such seventeenth- and eighteenth-century European philosophers as Descartes, Spinoza, Leibniz, Locke, Berkeley, Hume, and Kant, with special attention to their metaphysical and epistemological theories. Required for all philosophy majors.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: By the end of the semester, students will be able to:

- explain in writing, from memory, some of the philosophical doctrines and arguments of Descartes' Meditations, Berkeley's Principles and Three Dialogues, Hume's Enquiry, and Kant's Prolegomena [assessment method: three in-class written examinations];
- describe in detail and critically assess some of the doctrines and arguments of one or more of the figures mentioned above [assessment method: one term paper written outside of class].

These course-specific learning outcomes contribute to the departmental learning outcomes of the Philosophy Program by enabling students better to

- discuss the general historical development of the discipline of philosophy, including the views of at least three major historical figures of philosophy;
- incorporate a philosophical position in oral and written communications;
- critically outline and analyze philosophical issues;
- exhibit critical thinking skills.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION: The typical class session will consist of about 75% lecture and 25% class discussion. Lectures are intended to elucidate and provide supplementary information relevant to the reading assignments and to form the basis for a vigorous class discussion of the arguments and theories at hand. Reading assignments will be made on a regular basis. In order to benefit fully from lectures and to participate meaningfully in class discussion, it is a must that you do the reading when it is assigned.

READING: Ariew & Watkins, Modern Philosophy: An Anthology of Primary Sources, 2nd Edition, Hackett, 2009, ISBN 978-0872209787 [required]

METHODS OF ASSESSING STUDENT LEARNING:

- Exam 1 (20 points). Essay questions on Descartes.
- Exam 2 (30 points). Essay questions on Berkeley and Hume.
- Exam 3 (60 points). Essay format; comprehensive.
- Term paper (60 points). Minimum length: 2,500 words. Mandatory draft will be due on Tuesday April 11. Instructions will be posted in CourseDen.
- Class participation does not contribute to your final grade in any fixed way, but I will consider giving borderline students the next highest grade if their in-class questions and contributions to class discussions warrant my doing so.

GRADING SCALE:	A	170 – 153 pts	D	118 – 102 pts
	B	152 – 136 pts	F	101 – 0 pts
	C	135 – 119 pts

TIME REQUIREMENTS: UWG grants one semester hour of credit for work equivalent to a minimum of (approximately) one hour (50 minutes) of in-class or other direct faculty instruction AND two hours of student work outside of class per week for approximately sixteen weeks. For this three credit-hour course, students are required to spend two and a half hours (150 minutes) in class each week and to conduct at least an additional 6 hours of work relevant to this course outside of class each week. You should expect to work more hours than this outside of class during periods when you are preparing for an exam or a working on a major writing assignment.

MISSED TESTS / EXTRA CREDIT:

- If you know that you will need to miss class on a day on which a test is scheduled (for example, due to a UWG sponsored event), you must let me know about your absence as far in advance as possible so that we can schedule another day and time for you to take the test (or a make-up test). If you miss a test without receiving my explicit permission beforehand and making arrangements for a make-up test, you will be permitted to take a make-up test if and only if one of the following conditions applies: (a) Your absence was due to illness or injury serious enough to require professional medical care and which prevented you from contacting me before the test; or (b) Your absence was due to other extenuating circumstances beyond your control. I will determine on a case-by-case basis what constitutes "extenuating circumstances beyond your control." You may be required to provide documentation pertaining to your absence before you are allowed to take a make-up test. Make-up tests will usually be longer and potentially more difficult than the original test that you missed.
- Extra-credit work will not be given under any circumstances. Work completed for other courses will not be accepted in this course.

ATTENDANCE, LATE ARRIVAL, EARLY DEPARTURE

- You may miss four class meetings (two weeks of class) with no effect on your grade. Beginning with your fifth absence, you will lose 7 points (about 4% of your total course grade) from your final average for every class meeting you miss. This policy takes effect on the day of our second class (Tuesday January 12). I will make exceptions to this policy for absences necessitated by UWG-sponsored events or by other circumstances that were absolutely outside your control. However, I will make these exceptions only if ALL of your absences can be accounted for in one of these ways (e.g., if you miss five classes and you have documented, acceptable reasons for missing only four classes, then your fifth absence will still count against you). Documentation will be required in all cases in which I make an exception to this attendance policy.
- Students who miss 8 class meetings (four weeks, or one month, worth of classes) or more will not earn a passing grade in this course. In this case the reason for your absences is irrelevant. If you are unable to attend class for a month due to medical reasons, a family emergency, or any other reason, you should withdraw from the course; if the withdrawal date has passed, you should apply for a hardship withdrawal.
- An early departure or late arrival may be counted as an absence, depending on the circumstances. I will decide in each case whether an early departure or a late arrival counts as an absence. If you know before class that you will not be able to stay for the entire class session, please inform me of this before class and sit as close to the door as possible, so as to cause as small a distraction as possible when you leave.
- From the UWG Undergraduate Catalog:
 - "Instruction begins the first day of class. In face-to-face courses, if students fail to attend the first day and have not contacted the instructor to explain their absence, they may be dropped during the Drop/Add Period to make room for other students."
 - "Class attendance policies are determined by each instructor for his or her courses and may be found in the syllabus. Since course policies differ, students are responsible for understanding attendance requirements for each course. Failure to comply with those requirements may significantly affect grades."
 - "Students are expected to attend each class meeting. Students absent from class while officially representing the University or observing religious holidays should generally not be penalized in the calculation of final grades, as long as they provide advance notice and expeditiously make arrangements to complete any missed work."
 - "University-sponsored activities include but are not limited to the following: intercollegiate athletic competitions; musical/theatrical/art performances or exhibitions associated with a degree program; debate competitions; and research conferences. Activities not considered to be university-sponsored include participation in clubs, even if they are affiliated with UWG, or events associated with social organizations such as fraternities or sororities."

- “Regardless of the reason for the absence, each student is responsible for the material covered in class, for completing any assignments, and for making specific arrangements with the instructor for any work missed. The degree to which missed work can be made up will depend upon the nature of the work and its intended purpose. Make-up is at the discretion of the instructor.
- “Any student who must be absent for more than one week of class should notify the Patient Advocates in Health Services, telephone 678-839-6452. The student should also notify the instructor or department.”

COMMON COURTESY

- You may not use electronic devices, including smart phones and laptops, while class is in session, for any reason (talking, texting, Tweeting, catching Pokemons, etc.). Cell phones, laptops, etc., must be turned off and put away at the beginning of each class. I will make an exception to this policy ONLY IF you have purchased or rented electronic copies of our textbooks and need to access them during class; in this case, you must disable Internet connectivity on your device for the duration of the class.
- Do not leave the room during class unless it is absolutely essential that you do so. Leaving the classroom while class is in session (e.g., to visit the restroom) is both disrespectful and distracting. So when you come to class, be prepared to remain in the classroom for the full duration of the class period.
- Do not study material from other classes while this class is in session. While you are in this class, I expect your attention to be focused on it rather than on your other courses.
- Students may be dismissed from any class meeting at which they exhibit behavior that disrupts the learning environment of others. Such behavior includes – but is not limited to – arriving late for class, allowing cell phones to ring, speaking disrespectfully to the instructor and/or to other students, and using personal audio or visual devices. Each dismissal of this kind will count as an absence and will be applied toward the attendance policy above.

CONVERSION TO HONORS CREDIT

- Any student wishing to receive honors credit for this course must get the approval of the professor and complete all the necessary paperwork during the first week of class. No honors forms will be signed after this point.

Please carefully review the following information at this link: <http://tinyurl.com/UWGSyllabusPolicies>. It contains important material pertaining to your rights and responsibilities in this class. Because these statements are updated as federal, state, and accreditation standards change, you should review the information each semester. Topic covered include: The Americans with Disabilities Act; UWG’s Email Policy; UWG’s Credit Hour Policy; and UWG’s Honor Code.

COURSE SCHEDULE. The following schedule, including test dates and due dates for papers, is TENTATIVE and may change as the semester progresses. If you miss class, it is your responsibility to keep up with due dates and reading assignments, either by checking CourseDen or contacting me.
