

Curriculum Vita

Stephanie Urich
surich@westga.edu
TLC 3227
678-839-5192

Education

- M.A. in English, University of West Georgia, July 2012
- B.A. in English, University of West Georgia, August 2009, cum laude

Teaching

Fall 2025

- Adjunct, English Composition I

Research interests: cultural significance of myths & legends, media representation of the works of William Blake, and women's studies

Administrative Experience

- Administrative Assistant, University College – Dean's Office, 2020-present
- Departmental Associate, Writing Center, 2014-2020
- Front Desk Receptionist, Writing Center, 2012-2014
- Tutor, Writing Center, 2010 – 2012

Awards

- Bullseye Award for Student Success, 2023
- Robert L. Snyder Award for Best Contributions to the Senior Seminar, Fall 2010

Conference Presentations

- March 2012: "Rescuing Mary: Deification of the Virgin Mary in Beatrice Ravenel's 'Motherhood.'" Society for the Study of Southern Literature Conference, Nashville, Tennessee.

- Spring 2008: “The Many Faces of Evil: Exploring Concepts of Good and Evil in Constantine and Dogma.” Undergraduate Conference, University of West Georgia

Research Assistance (2010-2012)

Work for Dr. Rebecca Harrison

- Transcription of the unpublished pieces (poems and screenplay pieces) by Beatrice Witte Ravenel
- Resource checking and collection of various research projects
- Assisted Drs. Harrison and Emily Hipchen on their essay collection about Julia Alvarez’s work: Inhabiting La Patria: Identity, Agency, and Antojito in the Work of Julia Alvarez (SUNY)

Work for Dr. Angela Insenga

- Collection of resources for multiple research projects
- Clerical work for the English Education program

Speaking Events

- Fall 2014: T & D for The Academy at UWG
- Spring 2014: Oral Exam Preparation Presentation for EGADS
- Spring 2013: Oral Exam Preparation Presentation for EGADS