

Randy M. Speech

Carrollton, GA • 770-123-4567 • randymspeech@westga.edu

Summary

Highly motivated, enthusiastic, and dedicated educator who strives to ensure that all children are successful learners. Continually researches education programs and procedures to benefit students while remaining committed to creating a classroom atmosphere that is both stimulating and nurturing. Demonstrated ability to consistently individualize instruction, based on students' needs and interests with exceptional ability to establish cooperative, professional relationships with parents, staff and administration.

Education

University of West Georgia

Carrollton, GA

Bachelor of Science in Education: Speech Language Pathology (3.5 GPA)

April 2018

- National Student Speech-Language and Hearing Association (NSSLHA)
- Operation Smile

Teaching Experience

William James Middle School

Atlanta, GA

Severe Language Impaired Teacher

January 2016-Present

- Perform initial evaluation to assess students' baseline speech abilities
- Create individualized action plan for each (10) student to ensure goals are being attained
- Organizes students in instructional groups and work with other teachers to mainstream students
- Uses cooperative learning strategies to reinforce content material
- Participates in parent conferences and initiate special parent newsletter
- Completes all required paperwork including an IEP for each student

Sallie Zetterower Elementary School

Atlanta, GA

Resource Teacher

August 2015-August 2016

- Taught basic academic subjects to students requiring remedial work using computer-aided instruction and audio-visual aids
- Administered achievement tests and evaluated results to discover the level for individual students
- Conferred with school counselors and teaching staff to obtain additional information about each student's learning disabilities, behavior problems, and disorders
- Encouraged involvement by parents in the effort to enhance the student's motivation and learning rate

Volunteer Experience

Senator Jack Hill, 9th District

Carrollton, GA

Volunteer

August 2016-Present

- Answer incoming calls and work closely with the media and press providing general candidate information
- Assist in writing letters to constituents responding to various issues and concerns
- Produce flyers for mailing to garner financial support for re-election

Leadership

Finance Chairman: Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity 2016 -Present

Vice President: Student Government Association 2016-Present